AI Overview

An affidavit of support is a legally binding contract used in immigration processes—most notably as Form I-864 for U.S. green cards—where a sponsor promises to use their own money to help an immigrant so they do not rely on public benefits. USCIS (.gov) +2

Key Requirements

- Sponsor Rules: Must be at least 18 years old, be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, and live in the United States.
- Income Level: Must meet the Federal Poverty Guidelines for their household size.
- Proof Needed: Tax returns, W-2s, pay stubs, and an employment letter. U.S. Department of State… +1

Legal Responsibilities

- Duration: Lasts until the immigrant becomes a U.S. citizen, works 40 qualifying quarters (about 10 years), leaves the U.S., or passes away.
- Repayment: If the immigrant uses means-tested public benefits, the government can force the sponsor to pay back those costs. USCIS (.gov)

If you'd like, let me know:

- Are you filing for a U.S. immigration process (Form I-864) or another country?
- Do you need help knowing if your income meets the poverty guidelines?

I can give you more details for your exact situation.
